JULY EDITION

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Hello everyone!

Welcome to the first edition of ELA's newsletter! We are thrilled to embark on this exciting new journey of sharing all the fun and enriching activities happening in ELA. In this edition, we've packed in a variety of content that we hope will keep you informed and entertained.

You'll find highlights of our favourite activities, a special section celebrating our birthday month, and details about the upcoming events that you won't want to miss. Plus, we've included credits to acknowledge everyone who has contributed in making this newsletter possible.

Thank you for taking the time to check out our newsletter! We hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed putting it together. Stay tuned for more exciting updates in the future!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Hi, I am Jun See
and I like cycling

Hi I am Rhea and I like Cinnamoroll.

Hi, I am Ashlyn and I love playing badminton.

ACTIVITIES

COOKERY TANGHULU

Tanghulu is sweet and is very easy to make. It is crunchy on the outside and soft on the inside. We coated grapes in melted sugar, let them cool with ice water and ate them for tea break.

Can't wait to eat this.

This is so fun!

ACTIVITIES

This is really challenging

STICK 'EM

AEROPLANE

We used chopsticks and connectors to make an aeroplane.

Teamwork makes the dreamwork

ACTIVITIES

LOGICAL GAMES BOARD GAMES

Many board games were set up like Chess, Kingdominos and Scrabble to challenge one another.

This game is really hard

WOW!
This is so fun!

I need to win this
